2024 NFDA Pursuit of Excellence Award Recipients Set the Standard in Funeral Service

2024 Pursuit of Excellence Award honorees will be recognized during the NFDA International Convention & Expo

Brookfield, Wis. – The National Funeral Directors Association (NFDA) proudly recognizes the exceptional achievements of funeral businesses across the globe with the 2024 Pursuit of Excellence Award, celebrating their unwavering commitment to service excellence. For more than four decades, NFDA has presented this award to funeral homes around the world that have demonstrated a commitment to raising the bar on funeral service excellence by adhering to strict ethical and professional standards and providing outstanding service to families and communities.

These outstanding funeral homes will be honored during the prestigious All-Star Recognition Ceremony, scheduled for Monday, October 21 at 4 p.m. at the NFDA International Convention & Expo (October 20-23 in New Orleans, Louisiana).

To earn an NFDA Pursuit of Excellence Award, a funeral home must demonstrate proficiency in key areas of funeral service, including compliance with state and federal regulations; staff participation in ongoing education and professional development; offering outstanding programs and resources to bereaved families; maintaining an active level of involvement in the community; active participation in and service to the funeral service profession; and promoting funeral home services through a variety of marketing, advertising and public relations programs. Participants are also required to adhere to a Pledge of Ethical Practices.

“This year’s Pursuit of Excellence honorees stand out as an extraordinary group of funeral service professionals. They not only serve grieving families with the utmost dignity and compassion but also actively engage in making meaningful contributions to their communities,” said NFDA Director of Public Relations Jessica Koth, who oversees the Pursuit of Excellence Award program. “The Pursuit of Excellence Task Force was deeply impressed by the quality and creativity of this year’s entries. We commend these firms for their unwavering commitment to providing exceptional service, and we are honored to have them as a part of the NFDA family.”

Information about the NFDA Pursuit of Excellence program can be found by visiting NFDA.org/PursuitOfExcellence. Registration and application materials for 2025 will be available in mid-October 2024.

Richard Myers Pinnacle Award

Morgan & Nay Funeral Centre of Madison, Indiana, has achieved the highest distinction in funeral service, earning the Richard Myers Pinnacle Award, highlighting their unparalleled dedication to the Jefferson County community.

Pursuit of Excellence entries include an essay detailing a program or service that positively impacted their community. To recognize funeral homes that develop an extraordinary program or service, as described in their essay, that far surpasses the definition of funeral service excellence, NFDA established the Richard Myers Pinnacle Award. This award is conferred at the discretion of the Pursuit of Excellence Task Force and only when it encounters a remarkable example of excellence in the profession. The award is named in honor of the founder of the Pursuit of Excellence Award NFDA Past President Richard Myers of Utah.

Jefferson County, Indiana, is a small community of only 20,000 people. Between 2021 and 2023, the community experienced 17 deaths by suicide and 31 deaths due to overdose – staggering numbers for this small, close-knit community.

Morgan and Nay Funeral Centre took an active role in bringing awareness to this issue and offering educational resources and support to the citizens of Jefferson County.

As of June 30, 2024, there were no deaths by suicide in Jefferson County and only two deaths due to overdose.

Morgan & Nay Funeral Centre is only the fourth funeral home to be honored since the Richard Myers Pinnacle Award was established in 2018. Previous winners include Spicer-Mullikin Funeral Homes & Crematory in New Castle, Delaware (2018), Arrington Funeral Directors in Jackson, Tennessee (2021) and Holman-Howe Funeral Homes in Lebanon, Missouri.

Best of the Best Award Recipients

The Best of the Best Award, which is determined after a thorough review by the Pursuit of Excellence Task Force, recognizes the most novel and innovative programs and services in the profession as described in the essays submitted as part of a funeral home's Pursuit of Excellence entry.

Among the distinguished Pursuit of Excellence honorees, three funeral homes have risen above with innovative programs that set a new benchmark for service and community impact. These 2024 Best of the Best Award recipients have demonstrated not just excellence, but extraordinary creativity and compassion in their approach to funeral service.
